Vyasa Vihar as the name reflects is the highest centre of learning established after the name of Fakir Mohan Senapati in 1999. The University carries forward the ethos and ethics of Fakir Mohan since its inception and sowing the seedlings of knowledge. The University, was established by the Government of Odisha, under Section 32 of the Orissa Universities Act, 1989 and recognized by the UGC under section 2(f) of the UGC Act u/s 12(B).

Fakir Mohan University has been accredited by NAAC with B + Grade and also the Association of Indian Universities. This University has also been placed in the brand of 151-200 top Universities of India by NIRF. It has 18 P. G. Departments along with over 93 affiliated colleges including Government, Grant-in-aid, and self-finance in diverse streams proposed to bring awareness among them about establishing and putting in place the quality initiatives in all their endeavors. Fakir Mohan University has a system of Academic Assessment of the institutions conducted as and when required. Though the few affiliated colleges have been accredited with NAAC but many colleges are waiting for their first cycle.

Hence, this workshop aims to achieve a nationally acceptable accreditation as an indicator of quality system which is not only desirable but essential for all affiliated colleges of Fakir Mohan University. Nevertheless, accreditation benefits to all Higher Educational Institutions, Students, Employers, Faculty, Parents, and Alumni.
